

TheBestSchools.org Releases Its Ranking of Best Schools for Studying the Bible

PELLA, Iowa, Oct. 2, 2017 /PRNewswire/ -- TheBestSchools.org, a leading online publication for ranking schools and degree programs, has now published its ranking of "The 25 Best Schools for Studying the Bible."

<https://thebestschools.org/rankings/best-schools-for-studying-bible/>

TheBestSchools.org list includes Bible schools as well as other schools with strong Bible programs. They earned a place on this list through individual holistic considerations that include their (1) commitment to sound Christian education, (2) academic excellence, (3) spiritual life on campus, (4) and impressive Bible curriculum. Also, (5) all entrants are accredited through one or more of the following: Association for Biblical Higher Education (ABHE), Transnational Association of Christian Colleges and Schools (TRACS), Association of Theological Schools (ATS), and Council for Christian Colleges and Universities (CCCU).

"Many people today are searching for truth. Our ranking of America's top Bible schools reflects a select group of elite institutions that provide students an assurance of authority and credibility," says Dan Edelen, director of marketing services for TheBestSchools.org. "As a service to our readers, our list provides an additional 75 Honorable Mention schools for added convenience should a prospective student need access to a more nearby program."
