

Oral Roberts University
Master of Arts in Professional Counseling
Vital Statistics Report 2018-19

(CACREP Standard 4.E.)

- Number of Graduates
- Pass Rates on Credentialing Examinations
- Completion Rates
- Job Placement Rates

Number of Graduates and Completion Rate by Specialty Area

Number of graduates.

	LPC	LMFT	LADC	Total
2017-18	10	3	0	13
2018-19	9	8	0	17
Total	19	11	0

Completion rate.

	LPC	LMFT	LADC	Total
Students who entered MAPC program 6 years ago this fall	23	15	0	38
Students who have since graduated	13	9	0	22
Graduation Rate	0.56521 739	0.6		0.578947 368

LPC

Pass rates on credentialing examinations.

LPC (May 2016-June 2019)	17 applications
	5 testers
	5 passed test
	100% pass rate

Job placement rates. According to data gathered by ORU Career Services, the job placement rate for all graduates was 100%, indicating that all LPC graduates who sought a job found a job. Those who sought higher education also were accepted into a program to further their education. So 100% achieved their career goals after graduation.

LMFT

Pass rates on credentialing examinations.

LMFT (May 2016-June 2019)	29 applications
	8 testers
	2 passed test
	25% pass rate

Job placement rates. According to data gathered by ORU Career Services, the job placement rate for all graduates was 100%, indicating that all LPC graduates who sought a job found a job. Those who sought higher education also were accepted into a program to further their education. So 100% achieved their career goals after graduation.

LADC

Pass rates on credentialing examinations. N/A (No students sat for the LADC credentialing exam. The LADC track launched in 2017 and is typically taken as a supplementary track to either the LPC or LMFT track.)

Job placement rates. According to data gathered by ORU Career Services, the job placement rate for all graduates was 100%, indicating that all LPC graduates who sought a job found a job. Those who sought higher education also were accepted into a program to further their education. So 100% achieved their career goals after graduation.