Professional Counseling Program

Dr. Andrea Walker, Assoc. Director

- General enrollment: Refer to pre-requisite handout available in the INFORMATION CENTER (also a few available right now) before enrolling in counseling courses. Take courses in the correct sequence. It will make your life much easier!

- Practicum/Internship Program:
  - Application for the practicum and internship program and Advisor Conference due by March 15th (before Spring Break).
  - Even though the summer counseling practicum are listed under the fifth session, they will need to be completed over the 10 weeks allotted for a practicum, which is from May 6-July 13.

- CPCE: The Counselor Preparation Comprehensive Exam is scheduled for Thursday, April 11, from 2pm-6:15pm in the Computer Lab (GC 2nd floor). It is designed to put the fear of God in you so that you will study hard for the state licensure exam! J
Educational Opportunities for Students:

• Travel study available, May 14-31, for Counseling Diverse Populations or Counseling across the Lifespan credit. It involves attending a Counseling Conference in Tuscany, Italy. See Dr. James (kjames@oru.edu) for details.
• ORU sponsored EMDR Training during May and June: see Dr. James for details.

Review of degree concentrations: three basic licensure tracks (LPC, LMFT, LADC/MH) and three concentrations (LPC/LMFT, LPC/LADC, LMFT/LADC) are currently available.

Additional Formatting Options:

• By this summer, all counseling courses will be offered in their new modular format, as either blended or online classes.
• In addition, starting this fall (2019), we will offer a Residential Hybrid option. This means that many of the courses will be offered in a traditional residential format (enough to qualify for financial aid for room and board). Residential Hybrid will be available for LPC, LADC, and LPC+LADC degree plan sheets. With a few minor changes to the degree plan sheets, a Residential Hybrid format can be created for any of the other degree plan sheets. Just ask your advisor or me!
• Residential sections will be offered this fall for the following courses:
  • GCSL 528 Christian Approaches to Counseling
  • GCSL 643 Marital & Family Systems Theory
  • GCSL 635 Human Growth & Development
  • GCSL 640 Human Sexuality
  • GCSL 670 Intro to Psychopathology
  • GCSL 724 Testing & Assessment I
  • GCSL 781 Counseling Internship I
Professional Counseling Program, cont.

• Upcoming:
  • CACREP accreditation preparation
  • Counseling Center to serve students and community
    • Student learning lab
    • Research lab
  • Emerging horizons...stay tuned!
