

Oral Roberts University Graduate School of Theology and Ministry (GSTM)

The Library is very pleased to announce that we now offer 3 new EBSCOhost databases that will help support the GSTM academic programs. They include:

- Psychology and Behavioral Science Collection
- Religion and Philosophy Collection
- Sociological Collection

All three are full-text journal collections.

As a reminder, here are links to more library resources that help support the GSTM programs:

- 44 databases that relate to Theology & Ministry. (Click “more...” under each title to see information about the database.)
- 21 religion-related online subject dictionaries and encyclopedias in the Gale Virtual Reference Library (click Religion in the right menu).
- 31 religion-related reference titles in Credo (click Books under “Browse Credo” in the top blue menu, then click “Religion & Philosophy” in the left “Subjects” menu)
- 3 online Brill encyclopedias
- 10,169 religion ebooks in Ebook Central (formerly ebrary). Ebook Central has a total of 151,507 full text titles in many disciplines.
- 2,388 religion ebooks in the EBSCO eBook Collection (click Religion in the left menu). The EBSCO ebook collection has a total of 13,831 titles.
- Over 1.2 million full text dissertations, theses, and research projects in ProQuest Dissertations & Theses Global
- More dissertations & theses databases including a growing number of TREN titles now being housed on the Digital Showcase platform
- Also, as you probably are already well aware, the ORU Digital Showcase is increasingly becoming an important access point for the University. It houses our newly relaunched theology journal Spiritus, several historic Chilean Pentecostal Periodicals and Oral Roberts Ministries’ magazines, numerous ebooks in the Regnum Edinburgh Centenary Series, and even Dr. Larry Hart’s history of the ORU seminary.

Please take some time to explore these resources.
